

Press release: Appointment of new Commissioners to the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission

New Commissioners have been appointed to the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission.

Press release: Even more people set to benefit from online court reform

New legislation making it even easier for court users to apply for small money claims or divorce online was unveiled in the House of Lords today (1 May 2019).

Press release: Penny Mordaunt statement on fighting in Libya

International Development Secretary comments on recent violence in Tripoli and announces UK aid to provide vital medical supplies to help injured civilians.

Press release: Agreement reached on construction of new Wellingborough prison

Plans to deliver up to 10,000 decent prison places have taken a significant step forward following the appointment of a contractor to build a new jail.

Press release: Jeremy Hunt: Effects of climate change are fuelling conflict, UK to drive forward the global response

Speaking in Nigeria on a five-day visit to Africa this week, the Foreign Secretary highlighted the vital role the UK is playing in tackling climate change.