

Press release: Residents and landlords to team up to better communicate building safety issues

Social housing residents are to team up with their landlords to trial innovative methods of communicating building safety matters to residents as part of a new government-appointed group.

Press release: Charity Commission inquiry into Khatme Nubuwwat Centre finds poor governance at the charity

A Commission investigation into reports of offensive literature on display at its premises has led to significant improvements in the charity's governance.

Press release: UK Government to match £2m of public donations to cyclone appeal

The UK will double the first £2 million of donations from the British public to the Disasters Emergency Committee's (DEC) Cyclone Idai Appeal.

Press release: New funding will ensure all charities can access safeguarding training to build safe and strong civil society

Protecting vulnerable people from harm must be a non-negotiable priority for the entire charity sector, Civil Society Minister Mims Davies has said.

Press release: Foreign Secretary Statement after Appeal Judgment on Radovan Karadžić

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt has commented on the appeals judgment by the IRMCT in the case of Radovan Karadžić.