

Press release: Amber Rudd: “Behind our supportive staff is a compassionate system”

After setting out a fresh approach to Universal Credit, Work and Pensions Secretary Amber Rudd will hear how the changes will help local people in Hastings.

Press release: Glasgow medical firm showcases the best of UK life sciences sector

Glasgow company achieves international success, as British Science Week (8-17 March) celebrates science, technology, engineering and maths (STEM) across the UK.

Press release: UK aid to give clean energy boost to Kenya

The UK Government is investing Ksh. 220 million (US$2.2m) in the development of two solar plants in Kenya to give more people access to affordable, clean energy

Press release: UK issues call for proposals for Business Innovation

Challenge

The Business Innovation Challenge seeks proposals from enterprises who are developing innovative solutions to create jobs, especially for Kenya's youth

Press release: Coding to be taught in prison to help offenders return to the world of work

New pilot scheme will help carefully vetted prisoners learn digital skills and £1.2 million will help underrepresented groups get jobs