

Press release: Reforms proposed to put consumers at the heart of UK competition regime

A major package of proposals to bolster competition and put consumers even more directly at the heart of the CMA's work has today been published.

Press release: Environment Agency Board member reappointed

Environment Secretary Michael Gove, has reappointed Maria Adebowale-Schwarte for a second term on the Board of the Environment Agency.

Press release: MOD Sealand to be innovation hotbed for Defence

The Defence Science and Technology Laboratory (Dstl), which develops cutting-edge science and technology to keep the UK safe from harm, has opened an office within the Defence Electronics and Components Agency (DECA) in MOD Sealand in North Wales.

Press release: Peppino Fiori: repeat offender subject to confiscation order

On Friday at Guildford Crown Court Peppino Fiori was subject to a confiscation order under the Proceeds of Crime Act. He must satisfy a confiscation order of £158,159.09.

Press release: Not-for-profit music enterprise boss banned for second time

Boss of Ashford-based community interest company has received a second disqualification for continuing to run music initiative despite previous ban.