

Press release: Parole Board welcomes findings from MoJ review, including the introduction of a reconsideration mechanism

The Parole Board welcomes the findings from the Ministry of Justice review of the Parole Board rules and reconsideration mechanism, which were announced today by the Secretary of State for Justice.

Press release: New improvements to parole board transparency and victim support

Sweeping changes to the parole system to improve transparency, offer better support for victims and new powers to reconsider decisions have been announced by the Justice Secretary David Gauke today, following a review of the Parole Board's rules.

Press release: UK recognises Juan Guaido as interim President of Venezuela

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt gave a statement on the UK recognising Juan Guaido as the constitutional interim President of Venezuela.

Press release: Welsh company shares top tips for exporting in new podcast series

Cardiff technology firm Sure Chill featured in podcast series launched by the Department for International Trade as part of the 'Exporting is GREAT' campaign.

Press release: UK welcomes formation of new Government in Lebanon

Statement by Rt Hon Alistair Burt MP, Minister of State for the Middle East, on the formation of a new government in Lebanon