

Press release: New Charity Inquiry: The Albayan Education Foundation Limited

Charity regulator opens inquiry into education charity

Press release: 30 years of the Unduly Lenient Sentence scheme

Today marks 30 years since the start of the scheme, which allows some Crown Court sentences to be reconsidered at the Court of Appeal

Press release: Low Pay Commission publishes research on the effects of the minimum wage on employment and automation

Every year the Low Pay Commission commissions research projects to help evaluate the effects of the minimum wage rates we have recommended. Published today are two final reports and two interim reports.

Press release: Government announces new plans to protect treasure finds

New plans will redefine treasure and prevent sale of unreported finds.

Press release: Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt visits Romania

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt visits Romania for talks on bilateral co-operation.