

Press release: Boosting ceramics trade is a top priority, says Dr Liam Fox

The International Trade Secretary joins ceramics producers in Derby to discuss the industry's priorities.

Press release: New service for charitable bequests to be established

A new system alerting charities to when they have been left money in wills is to be established by HM Courts and Tribunals Service following a decision to end its current arrangement.

Press release: New Charity Inquiry: The Bersam Trust

Regulator investigates charity with significant unaccounted funds

Press release: Amber Rudd: Harlow Jobcentre Plus is backing the jobseeker

Work and Pensions Secretary Amber Rudd will visit Harlow Jobcentre Plus in Essex today to see how Universal Credit is working for people across the UK.

Press release: Cardiff bankrupt sentenced for hiding assets from Official Receiver

Bankrupt tiler from Cardiff receives suspended prison sentence after he tried to hide a property which should have been used to pay his debts.