

Press release: Homes England proposes new approach to development at Lodge Hill

Homes England has proposed a new approach to the Lodge Hill development on the Hoo Peninsula in Medway, which will avoid direct Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) impacts on the Lodge Hill site.

Press release: Fund launched to support disabled candidates stand for office

Women and Equalities Minister, Penny Mordaunt launched an interim fund worth £250,000 to help cover disability-related expenses so people can stand in elections

Press release: James Brokenshire sets out funding measures for councils

Councils in England are to share an extra £1.3 billion under funding plans published by the Communities Secretary.

Press release: Police to get largest funding increase since 2010

There will be up to £970m additional funding, including up to £509m from further council tax flexibility, to enable police forces to recruit more officers.

Press release: Prison term increased for Gateshead rapist

Raymond Paternoster will spend longer in prison following the Solicitor General's referral to the Court of Appeal.