

Press release: UKRI launches in Wales

Taking Welsh innovation from discovery to commercialisation

Press release: Crack down on suppliers who don't pay on time

Minister for Implementation Oliver Dowden announces for the first time, failure of companies to demonstrate prompt payment to their suppliers could result in them being prevented from winning government contracts.

Press release: 'Pint sized' Scottish satellites launched into orbit

The Glasgow built satellites, funded by the UK Space Agency will monitor weather and help combat global climate change.

Press release: CMA proposes major funerals probe after identifying serious concerns

The CMA is consulting on a major funerals probe because of concerns over large price hikes, hitting people at their most vulnerable.

Press release: Charities encouraged to bid for £15 million Tampon Tax Fund

Thousands of women and girls across the country are set to benefit from a new £15 million round of the Tampon Tax Fund