

Press release: Thousands of schools to improve through shared expertise

Changes to school-to-school improvement to be tested in up to nine areas of the country.

Press release: Major M54 M6 link consultation launched by Highways England

Commuters, businesses and residents are invited to find out more about a planned multi-million pound scheme to provide an improved link between the M54 and M6.

Press release: Regulator appoints interim manager to grant-making charity

Interim manager appointed to address continued concerns

Press release: Court winds-up asset investment company

A London-based company that offered unauthorised investment opportunities to the public has been wound-up in court.

Press release: New UK aid funding to tackle violence against women and girls in Syria

Baroness Sugg calls for urgent action to prevent gender-based violence in humanitarian crises – as she announces new support to tackle the issue in Syria.