

Press release: Game of Thrones capitalises on British exports

Horses, actors, costume design and set location are amongst the vast British contribution to the epic series.

Press release: Highways England calls on motorists to tow safely this summer

Highways England is urging anyone towing to ensure they have the correct licence and insurance, and their vehicle and load are connected correctly and securely.

Press release: UK continues to demonstrate commitment to supporting the advance of West Africa's Agro-Industry

The UK hosted the inaugural edition of the UK-West Africa Agritech Summit organised by the UK Department for International Trade in Lagos, Nigeria on Tuesday, 21st of May.

Press release: Government moves closer to introducing Sentencing Code

The new Sentencing Code to simplify and tidy up the country's complex sentencing laws moved a step closer today (23 May 2019), as the government introduced a Bill in Parliament.

Press release: Norwich river given new lease of life

A stretch of the River Yare near Norwich has been improved thanks to a river habitat project.