

Press release: Launch of Great British High Street Awards 2019

Competition launches in reigning high street champion Crickhowell – nominations are now open.

Press release: Drug firms accused of illegal market sharing over anti-nausea tablets

The CMA has provisionally found that 4 pharmaceutical companies broke the law by agreeing not to compete in the supply of an anti-nausea drug in the UK.

Press release: Out of this world ideas win funding in space competition

Innovative ideas from crime-fighting drones to tracking down trolleys are among the winners of the UK Space Agency's SatelLife competition for young people.

Press release: Attorney General appoints new Senior Treasury Counsel

Attorney General announces new appointments to Treasury Counsel.

Press release: Cash incentives for maths and physics teachers

New scheme will mean early career maths and physics teachers in the North East, Yorkshire & the Humber and all Opportunity Areas can get an additional £2,000.