

Press release: Sentence increased for ammonia attack

Hudson's sentence is increased to 14 years, comprising a 10 year imprisonment and a 4 year extended licence.

Press release: Trustee who stole from miners' charity ordered to repay over £200,000

Over £1.1 million transferred to good causes as a result of inquiry into Nottinghamshire Miners' Home

Press release: UK crowd-sourced history campaign marks 50 years since the first Moon landings

Ahead of this weekend's full Moon, we are asking people across the UK to share their memories of one of the seminal moments of the 20th century – the 1969 Apollo 11 Moon landing – and to tell their stories about how this moment in history has inspired them.

Press release: Army harnesses UK bridging innovation

Royal Engineers trial new bridging concept produced by Devon-based company.

Press release: Acid attacker has sentence increased

Hudson's sentence is increased to 14 years' comprising a 10 year imprisonment and a 4 year extended licence.