

Press release: New process set out to establish a working definition of Islamophobia

Communities Secretary announces a process for establishing a working definition of Islamophobia.

Press release: Green light for £1 billion trans-Pennine transformation

Options for the transformation of a key northern route, improving connections between the east and west of England were unveiled by Transport Secretary Chris Grayling today.

Press release: Environment Minister launches major Hull flood alleviation scheme

Construction of one of the biggest flood defence schemes in the country was officially launched by the Environment Minister in Hull today (Thursday 16 May).

Press release: Offensive Weapons Act receives Royal Assent

New legislation paves the way for Knife Crime Prevention Orders.

Press release: Justice Secretary announces new model for probation

National Probation Service to take over responsibility for all offender management .