

Public ownership: railway passenger services

South Western Railway and c2c will be the first to transfer into public ownership when their national rail contracts expire in 2025.