

Public service on Registration Cards for People with Disabilities

The Labour and Welfare Bureau (LWB) today (August 21) announced that applicants for Registration Cards for People with Disabilities can continue to download the application forms from the LWB's website (www.lwb.gov.hk/en/servicedesk/forms). Duly completed application forms with the required documents can be submitted via the LWB's website by e-submission, or posted to Central Registry for Rehabilitation, Labour and Welfare Bureau, Unit 1001, 10/F, THE HUB, 23 Yip Kan Street, Wong Chuk Hang, Hong Kong.

To reduce people flow and social contacts in fighting the epidemic, applicants do not need to attend any procedures at the LWB in person. Approved Registration Cards will be sent to applicants by post.

Enquiries can be sent by email to the LWB (enquiry@lwb.gov.hk), or made by telephone on 2180 9384 during office hours.
