

Pubs to stay open late as England bid to bring football home

Pub and bar licensing hours will be extended on Sunday after England reach the final of the UEFA European Football Championship.