

Radical protestors set fires in Mong Kok

Attention duty announcers, radio and TV stations:

Please broadcast the following message as soon as possible and repeat it at suitable intervals:

Radical protestors today (September 22) set barricades and started fires at the junction of Prince Edward Road West and Nathan Road, endangering the safety of everyone at scene and seriously affecting traffic nearby.

Police are using appropriate force to conduct a dispersal operation, and warn all protestors to stop all illegal acts and leave immediately.

Police remind the residents in the vicinity to stay tuned to the latest situation, stay indoors and keep their windows shut, if necessary.
