

Rare species found on Shapwick Moor Nature Reserve

Two rare wetland species have found a new home following Natural England funded work to create new wetland features.