

Recording of the week: A different kind of national anthem

This week's selection comes from Jim Hickson, Audio Project Cataloguer for Unlocking our Sound Heritage. The flag of the Sultanate of Maldives, as used between 1926 and 1953 When we think of national anthems, we usually have in mind grandiose compositions performed by orchestras or brass bands; epic pieces based..