

Recovery funding for the light rail sector

Light rail operators to receive £56 million in financial support to help longer-term viability and self-sustainability as COVID-19 restrictions are lifted.