Recruitment campaign launched for new champion to support victims of major incidents

Victims and bereaved families of any future major incident will be better supported with the launch of a new permanent bespoke position.