

Red flag hoisted at Ting Kau Beach

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) announced today (July 8) that because of sightings of sewage from unidentified sources at Ting Kau Beach in Tsuen Wan District, the red flag has been hoisted and the beach has been closed until further notice. Beach-goers are advised not to swim at the beach.

The Environmental Protection Department has been contacted for follow-up action. The LCSD will closely monitor the situation and will take further action as necessary.
