

Refurbished pumping station makes Doncaster more resilient to climate change

A newly refurbished pumping station at Bentley, Doncaster, which provides greater protection to 1,699 homes and businesses, has been officially opened.