

Regulator disqualifies charity trustees for inadequate financial and safeguarding practices

The Charity Commission has concluded that there was serious misconduct and / or mismanagement in the administration of Salvation Proclaimers Ministries Limited.