

Regulators share advice on 'giving with confidence' to registered charities, as new appeal launched to support Southport community

Charity regulators today issue a joint statement on the shocking events in Southport, as people show their solidarity with the community by giving generously to support those affected.