

Relocation of Wong Tai Sin community testing centre from October

The Food and Health Bureau announced today (September 17) that the community testing centre (CTC) at Morse Park Sports Centre in Wong Tai Sin will provide service until September 30 and be relocated to Tung Tau Community Centre, 26 Lok Sin Road, on October 1 to continue to provide convenient testing services to the public. Starting from 2pm tomorrow (September 18), members of the public may make online bookings for the testing service with effect from October 1 at Wong Tai Sin Tung Tau Community Centre, which will still be open daily from 8am to 1.30pm and from 2.30pm to 8pm.

Currently, 18 CTCs across the territory provide self-paid testing services to the public for general community or private purposes (such as certification for travelling or work) and free testing services for persons subject to compulsory testing or targeted groups requiring testing.

Please refer to the CTC webpage (www.communitytest.gov.hk/en/) for more information. Individuals with symptoms should seek medical advice from doctors promptly and should not attend the CTCs or mobile specimen collection stations.
