

Research: Enabling genome enhanced precision farming by building on traceability

The farm animal genetic resources (FAnGR) committee's review of the impact of a UK-wide whole genome database linked to traceability on cattle production.