

Research Grants Council public lectures postponed

The following is issued on behalf of the University Grants Committee:

In view of the latest COVID-19 epidemic situation, the Research Grants Council (RGC) announced today (December 11) that the public lectures on "Medical Technology and Society" scheduled for December 13 at Hong Kong Central Library have been postponed. The RGC will announce the revised arrangements in due course.