

Reshaping stroke and breast assessment care consultation deadlines extended

The Department has received a number of requests to further extend the public consultation periods on reshaping stroke and breast assessment care.