

Response to PHSO report on communication of changes to women's State Pension age

Following careful consideration of the PHSO's report into how changes to the State Pension Age were communicated, the Government has accepted the Ombudsman's finding of maladministration and has apologised for there being a

...