

Restoration of Gloucester flood embankment complete

The Environment Agency has completed restoration works of a flood embankment in Gloucester which helps to better protect around 50 properties from flooding.