

Resumption of services of Wong Tai Sin Home Affairs Enquiry Centre

The Home Affairs Department announced today (February 10) that the services of the Wong Tai Sin Home Affairs Enquiry Centre will resume from 11am today. The services were temporarily suspended due to the cleaning operation by the Hong Kong Housing Authority.

In light of the special work arrangements for government departments, the Wong Tai Sin Home Affairs Enquiry Centre will be open between 11am and 3pm from Monday to Friday. The service to administer declarations or oaths/affirmations for private use will be available.
