

River Aire flood defences are winter ready as work continues on permanent repairs

Permanent repairs to flood embankments on the lower River Aire are underway after they were damaged during storms last winter.