

River Deep Mountain High – an exhibition

An exhibition to mark the Year of Coasts and Waters curated by Archive Services at the University of Dundee.

Artists, designers and creative writers were invited to respond to the University's rich archive, museum and rare book collections on the themes of rivers, seas, coasts and mountains.

Original photographs, journals, plans, models and specimens relating to whaling, the River Tay, the natural world and mountaineering have inspired jewellery, artwork, sculpture, poetry and much more :

River Deep MOUNTAIN HIGH archives to artworks

8 February-11 April 2020

Lamb Gallery, University of Dundee

Monday-Friday 9.30am - 7pm, Saturday 1pm-5pm

An exhibition by the University Archives featuring the work of artists and creative writers inspired by photos, charts, journals and specimens found in the University Archive and Museum collections

