

Riverside Sunderland regeneration boosted by new £30 million Homes England investment

Latest development in long-term partnership sees government's housing and regeneration agency invest £29.75 million to boost Council's £49.94 million investment in Riverside Sunderland infrastructure