

Roadmap published to accelerate growth in port towns and cities

The UK Government has announced an action plan of over 50 measures to further accelerate the success of Freeports – a policy reviving the UK's port communities.