

RPA continues to support farmers and rural businesses

Payments help farmers deliver food security through sustainable food production alongside environmental actions to enhance and support nature