

RSC Chair to lead Creative Industries Council, as work kicks off on growth plan for the sector

Baroness Shriti Vadera has been appointed by the Culture Secretary as the new co-chair of the Creative Industries Council – a key forum that brings together government and the businesses and public bodies of the UK's creativ...