

Russia poses a growing threat to global stability and international principles: UK statement to the OSCE

Ambassador Holland condemns Russia's growing threat to global stability, food security and maritime safety as it thickens ties with North Korea, steps up attacks in the Black Sea and seeks to circumvent sanctions.