

S for S continues Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area visit in Dongguan and Huizhou (with photos)

The Secretary for Security, Mr Tang Ping-keung, continued his visit to the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area (GBA) today (May 25). He completed the visit programme in Dongguan this morning and travelled to Huizhou in the afternoon to call on public security and emergency management units.

Upon arrival in Huizhou in the afternoon, Mr Tang called on the Vice Mayor of Huizhou cum Director-General of Huizhou Municipal Public Security Bureau, Mr Chen Haibo, to exchange views on issues such as facilitating the flow of talent, emergency management as well as fire services and rescue. Mr Tang expressed his gratitude to Huizhou Municipal Public Security Bureau for maintaining close ties and co-operation with Hong Kong's Security Bureau and its disciplined services. He introduced the new Greater Bay Area Emergency Response Operational Plan formulated by the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government for enhancing the capability of GBA cities in handling incidents together to Mr Chen and deputy head of Huizhou Municipal Emergency Management Bureau Mr Li Zhengcheng who was also in attendance.

During his stay in Dongguan and Huizhou, Mr Tang visited Huawei's terminal headquarters in Songshan Lake of Dongguan and the TCL Technology Group Corporation's headquarters in Huizhou to learn about the cutting-edge technologies and equipment of the two leading high-technology enterprises. He also learned about the technical knowledge related to law enforcement and emergency management of the disciplined forces to explore the enhancement of service and law enforcement capabilities with innovation and technology.

Mr Tang concluded the two-day visit to Guangzhou, Dongguan and Huizhou, and returned to Hong Kong in the evening.

