

Safety tips and checklists feature on new app for seafarers

The Maritime and Coastguard Agency has launched a new app to help seafarers get the information and support they need while working.