

Safety warnings to be provided to all patients with every valproate-containing medicine they receive under new law

Patients to receive the latest valproate safety information with every pack, following changes to the Human Medicines Regulations, 2012