

Savers urged to be savvy before shifting savings

Plans to support savers seeking access to their pension pots are outlined today in a change to ensure people are fully informed before moving their money.