

New partnership to boost offender rehabilitation

A joint agreement to improve offenders' chances of securing work and successfully integrating into the community on release from prison has been launched by the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) and Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) today (23 July).

New Ofsted Board members

The Department for Education has announced two new appointments and a re-appointment to the Ofsted Board.

Three new members announced for Ofqual Board

The independent regulator announces 3 new appointments to its Board.

School teachers' pay to rise by 2.75%

Education Secretary accepts recommendations to increase teacher pay scales by 2.75%, equivalent to £1,000 on average classroom teacher pay

Linking technologies to better detect disease: apply for funding

Businesses and health researchers can apply for up to £20 million to develop new diagnostic tools based on linking technologies, data and systems.