

Government tells public sector it must pay suppliers on time

The Minister for Implementation, Oliver Dowden, has reminded public sector organisation that they must pay their suppliers on time.

---

HMA Martin Shearman introduces himself to UK nationals in Belgium

UK Ambassador to Belgium Martin Shearman introduces himself to UK nationals in Belgium and outlines what the Embassy is planning for the autumn on Brexit.

---

Effort swap proposal consultation open

The Marine Management Organisation has launched a consultation to better understand the potential economic and environmental impacts of a proposed international effort swap.

---

DVSA reveals top driving test faults made in the first year of the new test

Failing to look properly at junctions and not using mirrors effectively are the top reasons people failed following changes made to the driving test in 2017.

---

Developing components for smart energy systems: apply for funding

Businesses can apply for a share of £3 million to develop important technology components that improve the efficiency of local energy systems.