

Diabetes staff and charities celebrated at Downing Street reception

Prime Minister Theresa May welcomed guests from diabetes charities and the NHS to thank them for their work to support and help those living with the condition.

The future aerospace engineer

In a speech made at the Royal Aeronautical Society, Baroness Vere discussed engineering and education.

Costa Amendment: Correspondence with the EU Institutions

Secretary of State Steve Barclay and European Chief Negotiator Michel Barnier have exchanged letters on ring-fencing the citizens' rights part of the Withdrawal Agreement whatever the outcome of negotiations.

Economic Secretary sets out detail of HMT reviews of "mini-bonds"

A letter to the Treasury Select Committee setting out the Treasury's policy reviews into the regulation of the investment products issued by London Capital and Finance.

Recording of the week: Frank Land OBE – from Nazi Germany to the tea shop electronic brain

This week's selection comes from Dr Tom Lean, Project Interviewer for An Oral History of British Science. Amongst the awards in this month's Queen's Birthday Honours list was a much deserved OBE for An Oral History of British Science interviewee Frank Land, Britain's first professor of information systems and a...