

Speech: 'Going global' in higher education

The Universities Minister delivered a speech at the British Council's 'Going Global' conference, outlining his vision for UK higher education

News story: VMD web services currently unavailable

Web services, such as the Special Imports System are unavailable due to an unscheduled power shut-down.

Press release: New Charity Inquiry: Hindu Community Society

Trustees' failure to carry out duties prompts second investigation

Press release: International Trade Secretary visits Iceland to promote trade continued investment in UK

The International Trade Secretary, Dr Liam Fox is in Iceland today, promoting UK trade.

Press release: Highways England heads out on the road

People living and working in the East of England get the chance to hear more about a £61 million road maintenance programme for major roads across the region.