

Press release: Disqualified boss gets second ban for illegally running restaurant

Previously disqualified director has been banned for a second time after illegally running a Yeovil restaurant using former colleague as a stooge boss.

Speech: PM statement in the House of Commons: 12 March 2019

Prime Minister Theresa May made a statement on Brexit in the House of Commons.

News story: Government has launched its first holiday pay advertising campaign

The 'It comes with the job' campaign encourages workers to understand their rights and employers to understand their legal obligations in a fairer workplace.

News story: Cumbrian firm boosts project academy

A small Cumbrian company is helping to provide specialist training as part of the Project Academy for Sellafield.

Speech: Science Minister speaks of the potential young people have in addressing the opportunities of the future

Chris Skidmore speaks at the Industrial Strategy Science Fair, part of British Science Week 2019.