

Statement to parliament: Consulting on options to ban old tyres

An update on potential changes to legislation, highlighting government's intention to consult on options to ban older tyres on heavy vehicles.

News story: New labelling requirements to help motorists pick the right fuel at home and abroad

New rules will help motorists identify the right fuel and tell them the biofuel content of petrol and diesel.

Press release: Department for International Trade in top 10 inclusive government bodies

The Department for International Trade has been ranked in the top 10 government bodies for LGBT staff to work for the first time.

News story: Payment scheme for former British child migrants

All former British child migrants will be able to apply for a financial redress scheme set up by the government on the basis that they were exposed to the risk of sexual abuse.

News story: Improving service to customers: The recruitment drive and a better online service

At the Planning Inspectorate, we recognise that a prompt and quality service are vital components of our role in the planning system. These are of paramount importance to our many different stakeholders.